

Cash

(which is definitely not a ripoff of the song "Blood")

Andrew: Well they encourage your complete participation

Send you freebies when they think you need to buy

I can't control my spending 'cause I don't know how

And they love me for it, think I'll be a fan for a while

Ryan: So give them cash, cash

Buckets of the stuff

Give them all that they can spend and it will never be enough

Give them cash, cash, cash

At this rate my savings just won't last

George Lucas: A celebrated man amongst the fandom

We can keep them coming with a bit of luck

The fanboys and collectors, they adore me so

And it's really, strangely easy to make a few quick bucks

(Why thank you)

Andrew: We gave you cash, cash

Buckets of the stuff

We gave you all that you can spend and it has never been enough

We gave you cash, cash, cash

Lucas: We're the kind of entertainers that you bash!
